

GRADUATE CREDIT AVAILABLE FOR MIDWINTER CLINIC

Music Education in Minnesota (MUSE 489-01/589-01)

In conjunction with the Minnesota Music Educators Association, one graduate or undergraduate semester credit is being offered by St. Cloud State University for participation in fifteen hours of clinic, panel or demonstration concert sessions at the MMEA Midwinter Clinic, February 11th through February 13th, 2010, at the Minneapolis Convention Center.

Requirements:

1. REGISTRATION for Undergraduate MUSE 489-01 (Course ID: 004373) or Graduate MUSE 589-01 (Course ID: 004374) can be done online through the St. Cloud State University website. Students who are not enrolled in a SCSU degree program should register as a special student at:
<http://www.stcloudstate.edu/registrar/students/registration/non-degree.asp>
2. Write a brief summary of 15 clock hours of clinic, panel or demonstration concert sessions attended (a maximum of 3 hours may be concert sessions). Emphasize implications for your own teaching.
3. Submit the entire summary log to the workshop coordinator within two weeks. Submit it as an MSWord document attached to an email to smale@stcloudstate.edu

Grading: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory

Cost (Minnesota resident):

Undergraduate $253.12
Graduate $317.32
